OBITUARY

We regret to record the death of three of Newton Aycliffe's prominent citizens.

MR JOHN LUMB, respected executive of Cripps and member of the Burma Star Association.

MRS "BELLA" FISHER, a very active senior citizen and one of the town's great "characters."

MR. ERNIE MULLEN, a sportsman, and writer of repute, who throughout his life encouraged youngsters in all sporting activities.

Our deepest sympathy to all relatives. We hope they may find some comfort in the knowledge that the town acknowledges the part they played in its development. The gap they leave will be very hard to fill.

'CSO' Comes to Newton Aycliffe

A new department of the probation service opened its office at 49 Lilburne Crescent last week.

The chief officer, Robin Trewartha, spent most of his first day calling on the residents of the area explaining the purpose of the office.

His job basically is to administer the new "Community Service Orders" meted out by the justices who in certain cases offer offenders the choice of prison or a community Service Order.

Those that choose the alternative find themselves giving their spare time to help community projects. The time they must give can vary between 40 and 240 hours or, if out of work, up to 3 days of the week spread over their leisure time.

They are properly selected and supervised for the work they do and though the scheme has only run for a short time, it is proving very successful.

Persons or organisations in Newton Aycliffe interested in this scheme and who can offer community work to the persons under the orders can contact Mr Trewartha.

A small exhibition is on display at the office and an invitation is extended to all those interested to go along and find what the scheme is about.

Due to the present restrictions the size of this newspaper has been cut to half, and the date of issues put out of sequence.

We apologise to readers, contributors and advertisers for any inconvenience caused. Next issue is due out on 1st February.

Newton Aycliffe Where Ideas Grow!

Newton Aycliffe is being advertised in the top new papers "The Times" and "Financial Times."

The general gist of the ad entreats the reader to keep quiet about Aycliffe and in a contradictory manner says Aycliffe has everything to attract industry but doesn't want too many applying for the limited factory space we have available.

Taking the Acorn as its motif and adding the slogan "where ideas grow" the advert is gimmicky, slick, yet leaves the reader wondering "was it really necessary?"

In view of the present state of affairs in Britain it is unfortunate timing, as industry has no hope of expansion in the immediate future.

HORNDALE SENIOR CITIZENS CLUB

This club is now well established and provides a variety of interest including lectures, demonstrations and outings during Summer. All senior citizens in this area are very welcome to join and enjoy friendship each Monday afternoon 2-4 p.m. at Wesley Com house

On February 2nd at Aycliffe School, the Music Soc. welcomes the return of BBC prize winner Antony Peebles. Mr Peebles who has, since his last recital in Aycliffe, become the first British pianist to win the Debussy Prize, will give a recital of music by Mozart, Lennox, Berkley, and Brahms.

The recital begins at 7.30 and tickets can be purchased from Mrs Swift, 12 Aylmer Grove or the Library 50p (25p for Senior Citizens, Students and children).

MENS FORUM

At our last meeting the Rev. K. M. Sco't talked of how he shared with the members a love of poetry. He spoke of how he came to know and love poetry, and gave many examples dwelling on humour, love, epitaphs etc. He also spoke of many writers and poets.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday 5th February at 9 Isherwood Close, new members always welcome.

AMATEUR

OPERATIC SOCIETY

The "Gypsy Baron" will arrive at the Avenue Comprehensive School on Tuesday 16th April and remain there for five nights. During which time we hope that you will come along and enjoy our production of this famous operetta by the great Johann Strauss.

Mr Bob Hymas will fill the dual posts of producer and musical director with Mrs Joyce Walton as assistant producer.

The Society needs male members, particularly youngsters. We will be delighted to welcome anyone at our Wednesday rehearsals at the Avenue School. Don't be shy lads come along and see us, or ring Aycliffe 2664 for information.

While on the subject of youth, may we say a word of praise for the Avenue's production of Oliver. It's good to see young people involved in "our kind of thing."

Gather Round a Log Fire

Rising prices, industrial disputes, fuel problems, shortages and restrictions in this rather gloomy world are causing many people to change their way of life.

For many people, now, to frequent their favourite nos tely more than once a week is becoming a luxury. Therefore they want, and expect, the best value for money. There is nothing like word of mouth for enhancing the reputation of an hotel. "We're thinking of going for an evening out, know a decent place?" is heard often. And if the reply is "Why not try such and such a place. Wonderful food and drink, pleasant atmosphere and the staff are just perfect" then that particular place is well and truly on the map.

Take the Eden Arms Hotel at Rushford for instance. As part of their development programme, Vaux Breweries have now completed the modernisation of this well known Hotel. Over the past months, new bedrooms, all with private bathrooms have been added and the latest phase, the addition of new bars and a function room have just been completed, giving both traveller and local residents, new standards of luxury and comfort.

The Eden Arms has retained its atmosphere and charm for which it has been noted. The new bar "The Post Chaise" and new Lounge Bar "The Four in Hand" have both been designed with a coaching theme, recalling those days of yore when the old Wheat-sheaf Inn (the former name of the Eden Arms) was an important stop on the old A1 for the stagecoach. Open fires have also been retained to maintain the 'olde worlde' atmosphere and in these days of fuel shortages will afford a welcoming site to the visitor.

SOMEWHERE DIFFERENT

In addition to the bars, a new function room, The Carriage Room has been added. Here, again in the warmth and atmosphere of the Hotel, will be a popular venue for meetings and small conferences, or the room can be hired for private parties, dinners and weddings. The Carriage Room will be in great demand from local businessmen who require 'somewhere different' for their meetings.

Excellent bar lunches, a hallmark of many Swallow Hotels, are obtainable and the relaxed and friendly bars will afford many a pleasant mid-day break when the customer can partake of a variety, including Chicken in the basket. The Hotel also runs popular Dinner Dances on Saturday evenings throughout the winter.

Mr J. Richardson, the manager, and his wife, are always happy to discuss your requirements and ever willing to back your functions with the benefit of their many years of experience. They can be contacted by calling at the Hotel or by telephone at Rushford 541.

Mobile Cinema for Town

Newton Aycliffe Arts Council are considering sponsoring film shows presented by the Northern Arts Mobile Film Unit. The films are of the same type shown in towns nearby, and operate in areas where there is no cinema.

Newton Aycliffe qualifies for this special service, but a few volunteers are required in order that the films can be shown.

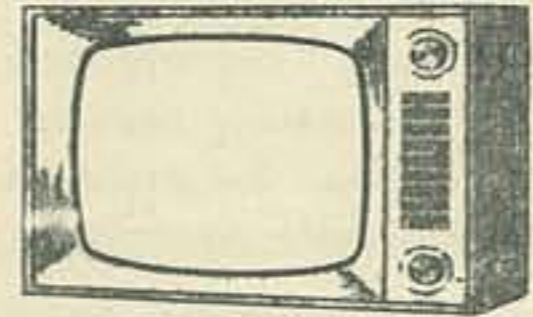

Northern Arts pay for the hall and arrange for publicity. The volunteers are required to set the hall out, collect admission money and generally organise the event.

Admission is 30p with half price concession for those under 21 holding Northern Arts Vouchers.

If you would like to be involved in providing the community with a cinema show once a month, please contact Mr Alec Belton c/o CSS Offices, 9 Isherwood Close.
