We must pay to avoid gas dangers

Pensioner Mrs Etherington of Dent Walk reported a gas leak which was duly attended to. But when the bill arrived for £2.70, Mrs Etherington was so shocked she considered whether it was worth reporting the leak.

What a shocking thing to have to consider due to a charge she could not afford.

Here was a leak which could have developed into something really serious and a danger, not only to the occupier, but to neighbouring houses, yet the charge for investigating the leak was so high that the complainant had to think whether she could afford to report future leaks.

We believe all gas leaks should be dealt with by the Gas Board at no charge to the householder who reports the fault.

The cost should be absorbed in the tariff and the amount spread over the whole area, resulting in a negligible increase.

Mrs Etherington has suffered doubly at the hands of the Gas Board, as her meter was broken into two months ago and she had to repay the £4 stolen.

One Parent Group

It may interest the people of Newton Aycliffe to read that after advertising in the Newton News for 'One Parent Family' to group together and help each other, that this group is now flourishing.

Our grateful thanks are extended to Mr Frank Snayde and other members of the Social Development staff who took on a lot of extra work on our behalf and to the clergy of St Clares who made their lounge available to us as a temporary meeting place.

At our meetings so far we have had speakers from the Department of Health and Social Security, Miss Nellis who is the National Children's Home social worker, based at Neville Parade, has also attended our meetings. We have also enlisted the support of the local Social Services for advice and help on matters that we can not handle within the group.

We have arrangements in hand for a Spring Fair soon to raise funds to subsidise a summer outing for the members' children, and a pie and pea supper in the near future.

Although we are quite an energetic group of people, any offers of help with our Spring Fair will be welcomed. If any 'One Parent family' would like further information there are leaflets available from the Information Centre, and from the Library, giving an address to contact, Anne Morley (Sec)

Book Show

The Newton Press Shop has just become accepted as members of the Booksellers Assoc. and as such can operate the National "Book Token Scheme" whereby tokens can be purchased and exchanged.

The shop already has a large stock of hardback books plus over 2,500 paperbacks covering a wide range of subjects.

To back this up, Newton Press has speedy access to many more books from their wholesaler W. H. Smith, and by direct contact with publishers.

It is impossible to show all the books available in the limited space the shop affords so, in conjunction with W. H. Smith, we are arranging a Book Show to take place on Saturday 17th May in St. Clares Small Hall (opposite Town Centre car park). Books will be on show between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. and all those interested in books for children, home and general reading are warmly invited.

Hawkshead residents vacate

Most houses in Hawkshead Place have a problem with damp floors, and the A.D.C. are being forced to transfer tenants, for up to 10 days, to other accommodation while the floors are treated.

Some residents may take this opportunity to move out permanently and the Corporation are trying to arrange satisfactory alternative accommodation.

All removal costs will be met by the A.D.C. and while in temporary houses, those tenants affected will pay no rent, rates, electricity or gas charges.

Apparently the waterproofing required in the concrete is absent by omission at the time of building.

Someone is responsible for a monstrous error, which is going to cost an awful amount of money, and a terrible amount of inconvenience to the occupiers of the houses concerned.

Senior Citizens unite!

As you are all aware, the Northern Arts Mobile Cinema Service increased its admission charges from 30p to 40p. Although, at present, no concessions are made for pensioners, the local group have written to Northern Arts requesting that the situation be examined. The following reply was received:

"Thank you for your letter regarding the new charges for the Mobile Picture Show. Your letter was in fact one of a number which I have received from various parts of the region indicating the hardship caused by the new charges to senior citizens. We do have this problem under review and, while I am sure you will realise that the Mobile Cinema service suffers from the results of inflation as much as any undertaking, please accept my assurance that we will do all we can to relieve any hardship that the increased charges are causing."

Michael Open
Film Officer

Further to this we intend to continue pressing for a change in this policy. We believe that enquiries from pensioners on the town direct to Northern Arts would contribute towards a review of their position, hopefully bringing concessions in the near future.

If you would please put pen to paper, the person to write to is:

Mr Michael Open,
Film Officer, Northern Arts,
31 New Bridge Street,
Newcastle Upon Tyne

The next film, 'Paint your Wagon' is to be shown on Wednesday 14th May at 7 pm in the Recreation Room.

A limited number of advance bookings will be available from the information office from Monday 5th May, enabling entry without queuing.

The Boys Brigade received their gold awards at the Methodist Church last week.

ANY MORE FARES?

In addition to her normal duties as Chairman of N/A Physically Handicapped Club, Mrs Olive McCabe has become proficient in another, rather unlikely occupation — bus driving! Not an ordinary bus, but the highly-prized specially adapted vehicle (above) recently purchased by the Club and is now becoming well known in N/A. Olive runs a door to door service each Friday night, collecting members for their meeting, and seeing them safely home afterwards. Many Saturdays too, she devotes to driving members on outings to places of interest.

THANKYOU ALL

Dear Sir,

May I, through the columns of your paper and on behalf of my sister in law Mrs S. Woodward, 53 Pease Way, express the gratitude of our family to the many friends and organisations who sent us cards, letters and floral tributes during our recent sad bereavement.

Though our loss is great, it is most gratifying to know that so many of you are prepared to share our sorrow.

To the many clubs, I know you'll feel that a worker has gone and I would say to you all, irrespective of your religious beliefs; your political or military affiliations, that the greatest tribute you can make to the memory of "Vesta" is your continued success and the success of the organisations of which he was proud to be a part.

Thanking you all again,
Gratefully yours,

Stan Palmer

Brian Rix - A riot of fun!

Brian Rix currently starring in "A Bit Between the Teeth" brings top quality farce to Darlington Civic Theatre.

Capacity audiences laugh
throughout each performance as the cast go through a quick witted, highly entertaining play.

The plot isn't too original,
but no one goes to see anything other than a typical Rix performance.

There is plenty of funny
trouser dropping, incidents with a "very fair" sprinkling of undressing by the two gorgeous supporting actresses.

The cast raced about the stage with split second timing and had the audience in hoots of laughter.

The set is magnificent and designed to allow the audience a view of kitchen, lounge, bedroom and bathroom adding very much to the enjoyment of the farce.

A fantastic performance of a play which must enjoy full attendances wherever it is staged.

We are privileged to have Brian Rix in town and if you haven't been to the Civic to see him — you have missed a rare treat.
