Must we dice with death?

Newton Press received a sixty name petition for a safer Greenwell Road/Dalton Way junction this week.

The following letter by a reader outlines the fears of residents in the area.

8 Allington Road

Dear Sir,

"I would be failing in my duty as a mother if I didn't once again bring to the attention of someone the certain death trap that will one day take a life or lives of a child, pensioner or unalert person.

I did mention the death trap in the Newton News some time ago and all that was done was to put yellow lines to stop parking near this spot.

The death spot in question is the blind corner coming into Greenwell Road, round which no one can see anything if crossing from the shops to get into Dalton Way.

What also makes this a very dangerous road is the fact that there is traffic coming both ways in Greenwell Road, and also traffic coming from Dalton Way.

Any person crossing the at this 3 road junction, especially with a completely blind corner has got to be very alert, and the speed at which traffic travels round this blind corner a person would have to be always on their toes.

I know the yellow lines, plus a sign pointing to a nearby car park should prevent parking but it doesn't.

It would help if people stopped parking there, but that still doesn't help not being able to see around corners!

I suggest either a speed limit, so that people would at least have a chance to run to the pavement; or a zebra crossing, or something, please, to make this road safe.

It's just sheer luck that no one has been seriously injured or killed on this stretch of road. How much longer must people dice with death before something is done?

Enclosed are some of the names of other parents very concerned about the safety of their children and the lives of others on this road.

Yours faithfully,
Mrs A. Richardson

The local road safety committee through Counc. Miss Symons have expressed their concern over this black spot and have asked for a 'T' junction this week.

The Chairman, Ray Jackson has been informed of this article and the petition, which we hope will strengthen the case for immediate action by the County Council.

Sign here please

At last the ADC have commenced to erect directional signs in the town centre.

Signs appeared last week on the ramp showing where the council and housing offices are situated.

All very well for people who are on the ramp, but should there not be other signs at ground level?

One would have thought it more sensible to have a directional map of the town centre offices and shops situated in a prominent position at ground floor level.

Most town centres have this type of map, some electronically operated.

Our town centre continues to grow and as more shops open, the landlords (in their interest as well as the shopkeeper), should help to direct shoppers to the new services.

There are still too many Newtonians travelling to Darlington for goods their own town supplies.

The ADC are spending thousands of pounds promoting the industrial estate.

A few hundred to help and promote the businesses we have already would not go amiss.

Attracting new businesses and factories to the new town is one way of providing new jobs — Expanding existing business is another!

See through steps

The iron staircase up to the rent office is causing embarrassment and annoyance.

The see-through iron grill steps are an offence to ladies' modesty.

Giggling schoolboys have been known to position themselves underneath for a glimpse of underwear, and for this reason many ladies are having to walk to either end of the ramp to get to the place they want.

The steps were erected as a temporary measure but as the housing department and other shops have opened upstairs they are used extensively and are likely to stay.

But, if they are to stay, then some alteration and improvements must be made immediately.

In the short term the ADC can save the ladies' embarrassment by blanking out the grill with boards. Secondly, in the long term planning, the improvement of that particular access would be useful and necessary.

As it is, the steps do not give a good impression of safety and it is with some difficulty that two persons pass each other when in use.

'SAFETY FIFTH'

THANKS

Dear Sir,

May I thank very much the organisers of the firework display held at the Stock Car Stadium. This year was the first time I had taken my three children to the display, and thanks to very good weather and a good programme, we greatly enjoyed it.

My only criticism would be that I would have liked to see more displays on the ground, rather than so many rockets. However, we had a most enjoyable 'Bonfire Night' with the children in complete safety which made their first firework display both happy and memorable.

This is a very good community and safety minded project and I hope that it continues to give the townfolk such pleasure in the future.

Mobile Cinema Service

I'm sad to have to inform you that the Mobile Cinema Service has now ceased, due to pressing financial problems. The service came to Newton Aycliffe for about 15 months, during which time the Town was one of the best supported locations on the Northern Arts circuit. Unfortunately the Service has been losing money steadily for the past 8-9 months and found itself in a position where it was no longer able to continue operating.

The Cinema will still come to the town thanks to the newly formed Cinema Society. If you are interested in the cinema, would like to help the Society please contact Mrs J. Jones, 4 Bewick Crescent. Telephone 3231

Boys Brigade Week

November 22nd is a 'Red Letter Day' for the town's Boys' Brigade as it marks the beginning of their National Fund Raising Week.

This year the 1st N/A Co. have set their target at £600 and a large proportion of this will be used to help replace the Company minibus which is used to transport boys to camp; to training courses and numerous other activities.

Recently the Company, in conjunction with the Pipe Band have formed a Junior Pipe Band. At present boys are being instructed in drumming and piping and it is hoped that in the not too distant future The Boys Brigade Pipe Band will be seen on the town's streets. Money raised during the week will be used to provide equipment for this venture. We are also needing equipment to form a Junior Percussion Band.

Various items have been organised and include:

Sat. 22nd Nov. Jumble Sale Methodist Church 10 a.m. Car washes Sat. 15th and Sat. 29th in the town centre car park. Folk night Thursday 27th Nov. Meth. Church Hall 7.30 p.m. Admission 35p. 20p. Sponsored walk of 25 miles. Sponsored swim of 20 lengths.

On Thurs. 25th Nov. the B.B. will be holding an Open Night when they are hoping not only to see parents and friends but as many of the boys who have been members during the last 14 years. This will commence at 6 p.m. Junior section and 7.45 p.m. for Company section.

We do hope that you will feel that the Boys' Brigade is an organisation that deserves your interest and support.

Saving with Spavin

A few months ago the town had one paint and wallpaper shop which could not be expected to stock everything, so Newtonians travelled out of town.

Now we have three shops, and the latest to open 's Spavins, bringing a slick modern approach to the sale of decorating materials.

In an interview with Mr Dixon, a partner, we learnt of the success of this young expanding company with shops in Thornaby and Whitby.

In a few years they have developed a policy of selling quality branded goods at very competitive prices.

The new, well fitted shop is situated by the Recreation Centre. Piped music helps you choose your own goods in a friendly atmosphere, with manageress Mrs Heckley and assistants always at hand to offer help and advice.

Spavins came to Newton Aycliffe because they saw an expanding town eager to accept expanding businesses. It is their intention to provide a good service and a comprehensive range of materials.

With all this choice and competitiveness surely Newtonians need not spend their money in Darlington.

NEWTON AYCLIFFE GARDENS GUILD

Have you got a problem? If it's a gardening problem you could find the answer at the next meeting of the Gardens Guild in the Oak Tree at 8 pm on Tuesday Nov. 18th. The speaker will be John Quayle, B.E.M., who, until his retirement a year ago, was Horticultural Instructor at the Finchale Abbey training centre for the disabled. John's talk will be illustrated with slides and an enjoyable evening is assured. H. Bilton

Adult illiteracy

At least 8% of the population of Britain over the age of 18 cannot read or write. Many have not sought help because they have not known where to find it or have not had the confidence to do so.

Citizens Advice Bureaux receive some enquiries from those who want to learn to read and spell and they co-operate with local literacy projects. But the bureaux are hoping that the number of such requests will increase as a result of the BBC's contribution to the combating of adult illiteracy. This month they launch a series of weekly TV programmes aimed at the adult non-reader. These will first be shown on Sundays at a peak viewing time (6.05 p.m. BBC1) and will be repeated twice each week (Thurs. 12.15 p.m. and Sat. 10.25 a.m. on BBC1). The programme alone cannot hope to solve the problem, but the BBC is also providing a referral service which will pass on details of non-readers to referral officers in the appropriate local education authority. These officers will then arrange for the student to receive individual tuition or join a small group.

If you know of anyone who might benefit from the scheme of if you would like to offer your help as a tutor, your local C.A.B. at 9 Isherwood Cl. Tel: 3635 will be pleased to hear from you. The workers there can tell you more about the project and how to contact the referral service or can put you in touch with a local literacy scheme direct. The bureau's opening hours are: Mon.-Fri. 2 to 4 p.m., Tues., Thurs. Friday 7 to 8 p.m.

MENS FORUM

At our last meeting Mr K. Dunnington, a new member, gave us a fascinating account of his life's work—cleaning, firing, driving and inspecting steam engines, raising among us many nostalgic memories of those amiable steel monsters.

Our next meeting is on Tues. 25th November at 10 a.m. in the Rec. Centre. All welcome.

A POEM FOR REMEMBRANCE DAY

SOLDIER BOY

Soldier boy, in France you sleep, where the crimson poppy's wave
Sleeping there, yet never dreaming, lying in a hero's grave.
Stars of France with love shine down,
Upon that little peasant town.
Shed around your Heavenly light,
Around his resting place tonight.

Soldier boy, you gave your all,
When you heard your Country's call.
I watched you proudly march away,
Your head held high, your smile so gay.
I never thought that you no more, would see again
our native shore.
Amidst your comrades there you lie,
So young, so brave, so soon to die.
Your country's flag you died to save,
Waves in honour o'er your grave.

LOANS FOR

SENIOR CITIZENS

Wentons are to be commended for their benevolence in offering Senior Citizens interest free loans to buy T.V. licences.

It is a fine gesture of help for those who have difficulty in finding a lump annual sum and even finer when we see that the offer is open to all Senior Citizens resident in the town, whether or not they are customers of Wentons.

The directors of Wentons decided to offer this service when hearing of Senior Citizens returning or selling T.V.'s because they could not afford the licence money.

"For some this is their only means of entertainment, and we are not going to stand by when we can help" said Mr George Machin.

Halls Fabrics expands

Brian Hall of "Halls Fabrics" expands his service to the town by taking another shop opposite his own in Dalton Way.

The new shop will allow space for Mr Hall to display his goods to better advantage and to bring in new lines.

Brian Hall started his business life in Newton Aycliffe 15 years ago as a garage proprietor, moving into retailing 3½ years ago.

The friendly help and personal service given at Halls has brought them a fine reputation.

Quite often they are complimented on having a bigger range than department stores in Darlington.

Over the period Halls have operated in the retail market, they have shown how a specialist can stock and compete with larger concerns.

We feel sure all customers will welcome Brian Halls' expansion moves and new customers will soon come to find how much money they can save by shopping there.

We take this opportunity to wish Halls Fabrics continued success.
