St. Joseph's Children Bring Xmas Spirit to Tesco's Customers

On Tuesday 14th December children from Year 4, 5 and 6 went to Tesco's to sing Christmas Carols. They sang lots of songs from our recent production and entertained the staff and customers at Tesco for over an hour. They sang beautifully and made the staff very proud. They represented the true spirit of Christmas, singing songs about Jesus and the Nativity story. They had fun wearing different Santa hats and appreciated the refreshments Tesco provided.

We have been raising money this year for The Children's Diabetic Trust Fund and we managed to add another £129.70 to the total. We would like to wish the staff and customers of Tesco a very Merry Christmas and thank them for their generous support. Class 6 St. Joseph's.

Record Fundraising Year for Honest John

Honest John's Fundraising Stall raised a massive £12,700 during 2010 for 19 various town charities including £1,000 recently for Newton Aycliffe MIND.

He has deducted an amount of £1,560 for the rent of the stall, storage and Market fees.

Honest John trades 6 hours each week on the Tuesday Market Day and all items sold are donated by Newtonians and he wishes to express his appreciation for the kind support he receives.

"This year is a record and I am delighted I have been able to help so many local charities, but I could not have done it without people bringing their unwanted goods to my stall for me to sell," said John.

John volunteers his time free working for good causes in our town and Newton News commends the long hours he puts into helping others.

60 HAMPERS FOR NEWTON AYCLIFFE'S NEEDY FAMILIES

Tesco Help Town's Rotary Club Appeal

Rotarians and Tesco staff load 60 Christmas Hampers onto the van to be delivered to the town's needy families. Rotary Club President Barry Hutchinson thanked Tesco Manager Martin Butcher and all his staff for their kind co-operation in the appeal to help those families less fortunate this Christmas. In particular the club is grateful to Tesco for allowing the annual collection in the store by Rotarians. Customers were very generous as usual and sufficient money is raised from the store and round the streets with Santa's Sleigh to make up the hampers. The club thank Curtis Office Supplies for loaning their van and Linden Group for the use of their truck, taking Santa round the Streets.

Aycliffe's Copelaw Help DVD Film

Youngsters from across the county were rewarded for their part in a short film this week.

The County Durham Youth Offending Service has funded the project, aimed at reducing the number of first time entrants to the criminal justice system, and launched a DVD at County Hall on Monday 13th December.

The gritty film, entitled Rewind, is acted by the youngsters who are depicting a day in the life of two groups of friends who find themselves regretting their actions.

Kannen Robinson, who took on the role of a young offender (graffiti boy), said: "The DVD project was a good experience and we hope it shows other young people the consequences of making bad decisions."

Gill Eshelby, head of County Durham Youth Offending Service, said: "Making the DVD has been a really positive process for the group, from which they have learned a great deal. It's hoped the DVD will deter other young people from getting into trouble."

The DVD was filmed and edited by Gary Wilkinson from Northeasternfilms and produced by Eye of the Fly. The DVD was also supported by Copelaw Activities Team, Durham City Homes and Durham

Think of the Elderly Walking in Snow

Dear Sir,
During the snowfall and dangerous icy conditions I noticed no one seemed to clear vital paths to Bus Stops.

I would have thought this would be essential work to make it clear for elderly people who rely on buses to get them about.

I live in a bungalow and there is a steep bank up to the Bus Stop. I came out to try and walk, but had to turn back as I was scared of falling.

It seems the motorist is cared for, but not the pedestrian and as more bad weather is predicted I hope something is done.

Sheila Thompson.

CHRISTMAS MISERS

Dear Sir,
I wish to congratulate the Rotary Club for their hard work in raising cash to provide hampers for needy families each Christmas. I followed them on one of their rounds and saw the joy their Santa's Sleigh brought to the streets they visited. Parents with children came out on hearing the Christmas music and Santa had a word with everyone. He waved to residents and passed on Greetings to all, while members of the Rotary Club knocked on doors to collect donations for the appeal.

I was a bit sorry for them out in the bitter cold weather, but even more so when some people did not even come to the door to give a few coppers. More often than not these were people who had two cars in the drive and a posh house.

The Rotary Club people give their time and effort to help people less fortunate in our town, some who are facing a very bleak Christmas, and a bit of compassion would help encourage their good work. Thankfully most people did contribute.
R.J., Woodham

TOWN COUNCIL MEETING REPORT

Wednesday 15th December

The Full Council meeting of Great Aycliffe Town Council (GATC) is slightly different to the various Committee meetings. Firstly, it is open to all Councillors and, secondly, its main role is to ratify the decisions of the different committees of the Council (which it did unanimously, without comment).

However, there were also a number of important other matters, in which you might be interested:

1. DRAFT SERVICE DELEGATION SCHEME

At its inception, Durham County Council (DCC) promised to support Town and Parish Councils who wished to deliver services on behalf of the County Council, and now a working party has issued a report which outlines the different types of delivery, the criteria for delegation, and the process by which a delegation of service might be sought and operated. This is an important issue, because it is part of the government's push for 'localism'.

GATC has always made it clear that it would be interested in taking over certain services, and Cllr Fleming, speaking as Leader, welcomed the document, but pointed out that there had been as yet no actual delegations. He was sceptical of a scheme which gave to DCC Service Managers the power to delegate their own services (since they would be supervising the dismantling of their own jobs - 'like turkeys voting for Christmas').

Most of all he noted that the report failed to resolve the key problems of WHO WOULD PAY for the delegated services (how funding would follow the services), or of DOUBLE TAXATION (where Aycliffe taxpayers are paying for Town Council services which elsewhere in the County are provided by the County Council). In short, the scheme was still inadequate, and if GATC were to take on any major service (and suggestions have included planning, libraries and snow-clearing) it would only be after full consultation with the people of Aycliffe. His comments were agreed without comment.

2. HITACHI INVESTMENT

A letter was received from our MP, encouraging people to write to Philip Hammond, Secretary of State for Transport, Great Minister House, 76 Marsham Street, London SW1P 4DR, expressing their support for the campaign to ensure Hitachi comes to Aycliffe.

3. GAI PARTY

The Council received a letter from the Electoral Commission approving the application of the GAI party to the political register. It did not record whether they are an Independent Party, or a Party of Independents, and the GAI leader did not comment.

4. AUDIT LETTER

A letter from the Audit Commission recorded its 'unqualified' (i.e. without reservation) opinion on both the Town Council's financial statements and its value for money, noting that 'its financial position and governance arrangements mean that it is relatively well-placed to meet future challenges'. This is the best report you can get from the Auditor, and was welcomed by all Councillors.

5. CLLR HOGAN

The Council agreed a request from Cllr Hogan for leave of absence from Council meetings due to ill-health (and we wish him a speedy recovery).

6. OUTSIDE BODIES

Finally, at every Full Council meeting, Councillors are always interested to hear reports from the Council's representatives to its partner organisations. Although the reports this month were mostly of meetings that had had to be cancelled because of the weather, there were informative reports from Councillor Fleming on the Larger Local Councils' forum, and from Councillor Ian Gray on the work of the Countryside Volunteers.

Newtonian is UK's Top Female Apprentice

Lisa Pape receives the award at a ceremony in London from Equalities Minister Lynne Featherstone MP.

A young employee at the 3M Aycliffe site has been acclaimed as one of the UK's top female engineering apprentices.

Lisa Pape, 21, who is in the fourth and final year of her apprenticeship, has been awarded a Special Prize for Merit by the Institution of Engineering and Technology (IET).

A former student at Woodham Community Technology College in Newton Aycliffe, Lisa joined the diversified technology company at its Heighington Lane site after passing A-levels in science and maths.

"I had originally been considering a career in nursing but changed my mind and decided to go into engineering instead. I'm so glad that I did," she explained.

"Engineering is still looked on as a male-orientated career but there's no reason why it should be. I'm very keen to encourage more girls to realise the opportunities it offers."

Lisa was selected for the award for her commitment to engineering and the successful projects she's completed at the site, which manufactures respirators and products for the vehicle aftercare market.

3M Aycliffe site manager Shaun Morley commented: "We are all very proud of Lisa's achievement. She has shown that she is among the very best of the engineering talent in the UK."

"Modern apprenticeships are a cornerstone of the site's succession planning and Lisa's award reflects positively on both our recruitment and development processes on site."

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

St. Mary's Car Park

Dear Sir,
I would like to know why St. Mary's Church users do not all use their own car park if it is solely for their use. Instead they continue to park dangerously on the road on Central Avenue, far too close to the roundabout from the Burn Lane exit.

This Sunday morning I noticed 12 cars parked here, thus limiting visibility for motorists exiting the roundabout, yet, meanwhile, church car park provided for their use was only half full.

As for the church car park being dangerous for school users - how many years has it taken to come to this conclusion? Isn't any car park a potential risk? Car park accidents make up a significant percentage of motor insurance claims.

Wouldn't it be a better idea to educate the minority of parents and children who have been misusing the car park and instruct them how to use it safely instead of just directing the problem across the road to Tesco's car park?

Riff review: "An excellent night with some classic rock covers done by mainstay of our rock fraternity both Bill and Gary gave the thumbs up to the performance, as did all the other punters in the venue tonight. For a band to stay together for that long you just know they're doing something right, this band have just earned themselves a promotion into the premiere league". Saturday 8th January - "Russ Tippins"

"His first set was done with an acoustic guitar, and it has to be said it was just like an intimate unplugged session you see on MTV, the atmosphere was amazing (as was his guitar playing) all the songs he covered were ideally suited for an acoustic set, Russ just oozed confidence. The second set was back to the electric guitar and back to rock, all the classic rock bands were covered: Floyd, Zep, ACDC, Purple, Stones, Santana. In summary this was the best one man show we had seen in a pub." - DAVY'S ROCKPAGE review

REMEMBER YOUR RENT AS WELL AS PRESENTS THIS CHRISTMAS

Tenants in County Durham are being urged to remember their rent as well as the presents this Christmas. Landlord SBH is reminding tenants not to spoil their new year by spending their cash on presents without taking care of their bills.

Tracey Jackson, head of homes for SBH, said: "A happy Christmas can easily turn into a miserable new year if you fall into debt. "It is very important that our tenants continue to pay their rent over the festive period. Anyone in difficulty should not hesitate to contact us and our financial inclusion team will be happy to help them. "Anyone who is a member of their local credit union can talk to them and the Citizens Advice Bureau is also available to help.

"It is also a good time to think about starting to save for next Christmas to avoid getting into difficulty in the future."

Rent can be paid to SBH by direct debit and standing order, at a PayPoint, by card over the phone on 01388 814704 or online at www.sedgefieldboroughhomes.co.uk.

Greetings from Friends of Senior Citizens

The Friends of Senior Citizens at Neville Community Centre wish everyone a very happy Christmas and a healthy new year.

Peter Beaty and staff wish to inform you it will be business as usual at the centre on January 3rd.

"A big thank you to all our supporters during 2010 and we look forward to being of service during 2011. A special thanks to Councillors Sarah Iveson and John Moran for their recent donation which was gratefully received.

Charity Walk Raised £5,118

Sgt Angie Sowerby, Police Sgt Kevin Sinclair, Sammy Askew and Scooby the dog followed in the footsteps of the Roman legions recently.

The 110 mile march was organised by Angie from the Royal Logistic Corps to support Help for Heroes and the Army Target Shooting Club, which is converting some of their accommodation to cater for injured soldiers.

She was accompanied by Kevin from Feltham Police, 15 year old Samantha Askew from Greenfield Arts College and Scooby, a rescue dog from the Dogs Trust. They were supported by a small support team along the way.

The intrepid four started at Carriden on the Forth, the first 37 miles was done over a 2 and a half day period, ending at Old Kilpatrick on the Clyde, West Scotland. After a night's sleep transport brought the group down to Hadrian's Wall at the Solway Firth where the remaining 73 gruelling miles commenced, covering 15-16 miles a day over a 5 day period finally ending at Wallsend.

Sgt Sowerby wore a full replica Roman battle armour and leather hobnail sandals, carrying sword, dagger, shield, and heavy javelin. "It was so painful but an amazing experience," she says, "I would like to thank everyone who encouraged us along the way."

Sgt Sinclair wore British Army desert fighting order, including a fully loaded patrol pack, Osprey body armour, water camel pack, desert assault vest and helmet. "I fully appreciate what our armed forces are doing," he says. "It hurt completing this march, but it was worth every bit of it." Samantha wore British Army Woodland fighting order, including a fully loaded patrol pack, combat body armour, water camel pack, combat assault vest and helmet. "My Brother and Aunt are soldiers and I am so proud of them," she says. "I am also proud of all our men and women in our armed forces and I hope that together we have made a small difference."

The Team managed to raise an outstanding £5118 which was split equally between both charities. They wish to thank all who donated and supported them on their journey.

Thanks to Entrepreneurs

Dear Sir,
I would like to congratulate the Peckitts for their foresight in giving people much needed leisure facilities and I hope they get the full support of both the people of Newton Aycliffe and the Council. The ice rink in particular should appeal to many people living outside of our area and it's just a pity there aren't other entrepreneurs who could build a cinema and perhaps an out of town shopping centre around this new and exciting venture. I wish them well and a Happy Christmas with and every success for 2011.

Selling Draw Tickets to Aid Leukaemia Research

The Rotary Bumper Draw has recruited Alison White, a Leukaemia sufferer, to their list of ticket sellers.

Alison will be selling tickets on behalf of Leukaemia Research and retaining half the money from sales of tickets for that charity. She has already raised thousands of pounds from various fundraising activities and sees this as another way to swell the funds. All Town organisations are invited to take part in the draw. Everything is organised by the town's Rotary Club who have obtained all the prizes, printed the tickets, and registered the draw which will take place at the British Legion on 7th April 2011.

Is the Global Warming Joke Over?

Dear Sir,
If, last week, frozen behind a snowdrift, you heard a faint hysterical squeaking, it might well have been the sound of those 20,000 delegates holed up behind a wall of armed security guards in the sun-drenched Mexican holiday resort of Cancun, telling each other that the world is more threatened by runaway global warming than ever.

Between their tequilas and lavish meals, paid for by the world's taxpayers, they heard how, by 2060, global temperatures will have risen by 4 degrees Celsius; how the Maldives and Tuvalu are sinking below the waves faster than ever; how the survival of salmon is threatened by CO2-induced acidification of the oceans; how the UN must ban incandescent light bulbs throughout the world.

"Scientists", we were told, are calling for everyone to be issued with a "carbon ration card", to halt all Western economic growth for 20 years. It is only those same old computer models that predict that Tuvalu and the Maldives are about to drown, when real measurements show the sea around them not to be rising at all. Far from the oceans acidifying, their pH currently ranges between 7.9 and 8.3, putting them very firmly on the alkaline side of the threshold, at 7.0. The prediction that global temperatures will rise by four degrees in 50 years comes from that same UK Met Office computer which five weeks ago was telling us we were about to enjoy a "milder than average" winter, after three years when it has consistently got every one of its winter and summer forecasts hopelessly wrong. (And the reason why our local authorities are already fast running out of salt is that they were silly enough to believe them.)

When Vicky Pope, the Met Office's Head of Climate Change Advice, wanted to fly out from Gatwick to Cancun to tell them that 2010 is the hottest year on record, she was trapped by inches of the same global warming that her £33 million computer had failed to predict.

As for all that "geo-engineering" make-believe which has been peddled for years, about giant mirrors and covering the sea with iron filings, are as fanciful as the idea that we can save the planet by forcing everyone to use those miserable mercury-vapour "low-energy" light bulbs, or that we can pipe away all the carbon dioxide from power stations to store it in holes under the North Sea.

What we are seeing here is one of the greatest collective flights from reality in the history of the human race. As western Europe shivers to a halt and our energy bills soar through the roof, the time has come when we should all start to get seriously angry with our politicians for being carried away by all this claptrap.

Why, for instance, when our public debt is still rising by £3 billion a week, do we allow our Government to ring-fence £2.9 billion of our money to help the developing world to build useless wind turbines and solar panels?

With all the cuts in public spending going on one which has rightly drawn flak is the colossal 47 % jump in our spending on overseas aid, due to rise from £7.8 billion to £11.5 billion. This includes, for instance, a further rise in the £800 million a year we already donate to India, one of the world's fastest growing economies. This will be spent on promoting gender equality, and assisting the Indians with their space programme.

This includes, however, only a part of the £2.9 billion that will be spent, along with the Department for Energy and Climate Change (DECC), as part of an EU scheme "to help developing countries pursue low-carbon growth and adapt to climate change", which is a hefty part of the 27 % rise in the DECC budget over the next four years. A good case could be made that almost all spending on overseas aid and climate change is money chucked down the drain. (My favourite politically correct DFID project was building a Ferris Wheel for the female inhabitants of the Afghan town of Lashkar Gah.)

Another item - on the list of fast-rising items of public expenditure - is the £16 billion a year we already contribute to "EU institutions". This will be boosted by the EU Parliament's decision, that the EU Budget should rise by a further 6 %.

When England's students face a rise in tuition fees from £3,000 to £9,000 (but not Scottish or Welsh students thanks to England subsidising them) why do we tolerate a Parliament which blithely commits us to spending £18.3 billion every year for 40 years under the Climate Change Act, without having the faintest idea how we are going to keep our lights on? The global warming scare may have been fun for the children while it lasted, but the time has come for the joke to be declared well and truly over.

MANAGING THE CUTS IN COUNTY DURHAM

Durham County Council faces an unprecedented challenge to reduce spending by over £100m over the next four years, which is more than double what the authority had planned to save in its current financial plan and will involve reviewing all services over the next four years.

The council's four year Medium Term Financial Plan (MTFP) sets the context for the more detailed budgets the council develops each year. Since the General Election, the council has had to completely review its financial plans to respond to the unprecedented spending reductions imposed by the Government.

As well as coping with additional spending cuts of £18.6m earlier this year, the council, must plan for a 28 per cent reduction in the level of Government support it will receive over the next four years. Together these figures total more than £100m.

In addition, council tax accounts for about a quarter of our income. In line with Government directions this has been frozen for 2011/12 and significant increases will not be allowed in future years, so the authority has no other option but to significantly reduce spending to respond to its reduction in budget.

This will be very challenging and will involve many difficult decisions. The council now has the final settlement figure of £235.4m for 2011/12 and is able to assess in more depth the reality.

Durham's baseline grant from Government has been reduced in cash terms by £28m in 2011/2012 and a further £17m in 2012/13 plus £25 million in Area Based Grants

The published figure of a 6.7 per cent reduction for Durham arises from a calculation of grant reduction against our total spend, rather than against grant received and includes Council Tax plus our share of the Social Care allocation.

Over £11m of the council's grant entitlement has been withheld by Government to protect services in other local authority areas

Unlike many other councils, Durham is proposing to achieve more than half of the savings required from sources other than service rationalisation. This is possible because the council will make significant efficiencies as a result of its on-going modernisation programme and as a larger council, has more scope to realise savings.

The council has also responded to widespread recent public consultation and, as a result, will find above average reductions from management and support costs. This overall approach is key to protecting frontline services as much as possible.

Our approach will be to reduce spending across five categories:

MAKING SAVINGS ACROSS MANAGEMENT
MAKING SAVINGS ACROSS SUPPORT SERVICES

IMPLEMENTING EFFICIENCY MEASURES
REVIEWING FEES AND INCOME

RATIONALISING SERVICES AS A LAST RESORT

More than half of the savings which the council will have to make from its core budget will come from the first four categories above.

Durham County Council can do this because its on-going modernisation programme following unitary reorganisation in 2009 includes a whole series of cost saving projects and efficiency improvements to modernise, improve and streamline the operation of the largest local authority in the region and one of the largest councils in the county. As a larger local authority, Durham County Council has more scope than smaller councils to achieve savings in management and support costs.

In developing a revised MTFP which reflects the major reductions in spending, the authority has conducted two major consultation exercises with the public. During these people have been asked how they feel Durham County Council should make the required savings and which services they would most like to see protected.

The council intends to build on its recent track record of making efficiency savings and proposes a further £13.6 m of similar savings during the course of the plan, through projects such as:

More cost effective waste, recycling and refuse collection

Centralising and rationalising council depots and stores
Creating integrated teams with the Health service

Supporting people to live independently through moving to re-ablement services

Sharing management costs between leisure and cultural services

More effective use of the council's fleet of vehicles

More cost effective administration for the council's Area Action Partnerships

More cost effective procurement of services including social care contracts, waste disposal and technical services.

These projects should help to protect or improve service provision by reducing costs.

On fees and charges, the council expects to save £5.5m, should the proposals set out in the revised MTFP be accepted by Cabinet on December 22. The authority will aim to strike a balance between charging for services (where it is normal practice for councils to do so), and the need to ensure that fees are appropriate and affordable for the many low income households in County Durham.

Historically, Durham has offered relatively high levels of service compared with other councils. For example, music in schools in Durham is subsidised by the council tax and kerbside green waste collections are free, whereas in other areas these are paid-for, self-financing services. This means that Durham has more scope to meet the spending reductions by varying the standard of service, before having to consider withdrawing services altogether.

The council will fundamentally review services to identify efficiency savings and the potential for rationalising elements of service areas. Amongst 140 proposals for making savings and reviews (see attached appendix), and having listened to the public's views the council will review high profile services including:

LIBRARY SERVICES
FUNDING OF ARTS, MUSEUMS AND THEATRES

an overwhelming level of satisfaction with the Council with 4 in 5 respondents responding to say they are satisfied with the way Durham County Council runs things. A report to Cabinet will demonstrate that in the first 12 months of being a unitary council we were on the right track according to 78% of the 6,719 residents who were interviewed between May 2010 and the middle of August.

Cllr Simon Henig, Leader of the Council said "This benchmark survey is very encouraging for us and says residents are happier now than they were before the unitary council came into being. - the difference is quite marked when compared with the Place Survey in 2008 when 41 per cent of the respondents were satisfied."

All respondents were provided with a list of services and asked to rate their level of satisfaction or dissatisfaction with each. Among "users" of these services satisfaction is highest with street scene related services (90 per cent satisfied), doorstep collection recycling (90 per cent) and local recycling facilities (87 per cent).

Education is also highly regarded with primary education, (91 per cent satisfied), nursery education (89 per cent) and secondary education (86 per cent). A large majority of residents - 93 per cent feel the council has staff that are friendly and polite. Close to nine in ten feel that the council is doing a good job, (88 per cent) and enhances and conserves the environment (87 per cent). It is also very positive that 80 per cent of respondents feel that the council is efficient and well run.

With questions around the image of Durham and satisfaction with their local area over four in five (85 per cent) residents agree that Durham is an attractive place to live with views as high as 97 per cent and 95 per cent among residents of Weardale and Teesdale. The findings also showed that 80 per cent of respondents believe County Durham is a safe place to live.

During November and December each Area Action Partnership will receive an area profile that has been produced to include some of the specific feedback from those residents surveyed in their area.

Councillor Simon Henig said "The feedback to our Area Action Partnerships will be very timely as they are about to review their priorities and it has highlighted differences between them so action can be targeted. I'm very pleased with the overall feedback and it reflects well on the way our staff have come together and the role members take in their local areas."

SPORTSABILITY GAIN CLUBMARK ACCREDITATION

Sedgefield Junior Sportsability club has become the first disability club to achieve Clubmark status in County Durham.

The Clubmark initiative, run by Sport England, works to ensure consistent good practice is delivered by its partners and has now recognised the commitment made by Sportsability to develop a high quality, welcoming environment for its young participants.

Sportsability was set up by Durham County Council in 2008.

The club offers young people with disabilities, aged between five and 16-years-old, the opportunity to take part in various sport sessions including athletics, taekwondo, swimming, football and gymnastics. Each session is run by a qualified coach with support from parents and carers.

Victoria Minniss, Durham County Council's sports development officer, said: "Clubmark status gives us tangible benefits such as an increase in membership, which in turn gives parents confidence in choosing the club for their children. The culture that Clubmark promotes boosts morale and ensures that volunteers are recognised for their contributions. Accreditation has encouraged the club to adopt better, more organised systems and structures thus helping us to run more effectively and efficiently."

Sportsability operates on a Monday evening at Spennymoor Leisure Centre between 5.00pm and 6.30pm.

For further information on the club and the club's activities please contact Victoria Minniss, Sport Development Officer on 01388 816166 or email victoria.minniss@durham.gov.uk

AYCLIFFE 4 POINTS CLEAR AT TOP OF THE LEAGUE

FIXTURES

Monday 27th December: Crook Town (Away), 1pm

Monday 3rd January: Morpeth (Home), 3pm

Saturday 8th January: North Shields (Home), 3pm

Saturday 22nd January: Marske Utd (Home), 3pm

Saturday 29th January: Washington (Home), 3pm

www.newtonaycliffefc.co.uk

Aycliffe FC, currently four points clear at the top of the Northern League 2nd Div. need to finish in the top three to win promotion to the top flight at the end of the season.

But they'll not qualify for the first division due to strict ground grading rules set out by the national Football Association, unless they erect a second stand at Moore Lane Park to accommodate at least 100 standing spectators, alongside their 113-seater stand.

They need to raise around £10,000. However, the club are keen to speak to local tradesmen and firms who can offer services and supplies at cost price.

Farley added: "We've been given a quote for a stand but there are other ways around this and by pooling the resources on the town we could get there with one big team effort, just like the Newton Press deal. "We'd love to hear from any firms or tradesmen out there who'd be willing to chip in and help out by either doing some work for us or offering cost-price materials."

More than £30,000 has been spent on ground developments in the last year, the majority of which was donated by Aycliffe Sports Club. That's on top of the original £320,000 spent to redevelop the ground in the first place, provided by grants from the LIP Fund and the Football Foundation.

Anyone who'd like to help the club, or to make a donation, can contact Secretary Steve Cunliffe on 07872 985501 or email stecunliffe@aol.com

Meanwhile, the lack of football continues due to the arctic conditions. Aycliffe are due to play Crook Town away on Monday (December 27) followed by Morpeth at home on Monday January 3. Fans will be updated via the usual channels: the club's official website, facebook, their free SMS text service and nonleaguezone.com

Newton Press First to Back Aycliffe FC Promotion Bid

Newton Press is the first firm to support Aycliffe FC's campaign for a second stand with a fantastic new sponsorship deal.

The family run-company, printers of the Newton News, have kick-started Aycliffe's fundraising drive by sponsoring the club's award-winning programme.

Newton Press, one of the town's oldest firms, will now be printing the club's popular matchday read, free of charge as part of the 18-month deal.

Chairman Gary Farley, pictured with Newton Press Director Paul Howarth, said: "This is absolutely brilliant news and we are thrilled Newton Press are supporting the town's football club in this way. Our match programme has previously made a very small return for the club due to printing costs, as it's full-colour, glossy finish helped it win the Northern League programme of the year award at the first time of asking last season!

"But this deal represents real cash value and gives our new fundraising effort a fantastic springboard.

"The money from programme sales on matchdays will now go directly into the fund for our new stand so it will have a big part to play." Aycliffe sell an average of 70 programmes per game, with the club set to save at least £2,500 per season on printing costs.

Newton Press have signed up to printing the club's programme for the remainder of the current season as well as all of the 2011-12 campaign.

Paul Howarth said: "Newton Press will be celebrating it's 50th Anniversary in 2013, and are pleased to help the growth of football in our town. We will continue to promote town businesses, organisations, schools, churches and sports through the Newton News."
