Dear Sir,

pinned onto our Brownie uniform with numbers up to twenty on it.

Then we had to go to the corner of the field, and when the first whistle went some of the Brownies started, and on the second whistle the rest of the Brownies started. If you wanted to go round with your friend you could. I went round with my friend Lynn. After each lap you got a number marked off and on the tenth lap you were given a lolly-pop.

This Sunday a special presentation is to be made to the Town Division of St. John Ambulance Brigade.

The GEC Employees Charity Fund chairman will donate a portable wheelchair to Super-intendent K. Clark.

"GEC personnel responded generously to our appeal for equipment," said Mr Clark. "The wheelchair is a major item and will be very useful," he added.

The Brigade, which has been established only 2 years, continues to expand its service to the town.

In addition to voluntary outside duties the division takes on the responsibility of organising first aid courses

Skilled workers from the publicity about the recruit-North East have come forward ment campaign in Scotland to fill jobs in Newton Aycliffe had attracted skilled men from after a recruitment drive on nearer home.

Clydebank. The campaign to bring skilled men over the border started three weeks of the day it is the employers' decision who be taken any Newton Aycliffe firms were being held back from expand-ing because skilled men in the region are reluctant to work in the new town.

The town's Job Centre was looking for 50 men to start work immediately and a pool of 200 prepared to move south when they were needed.

The drive on Clydebank, an area of high redundancy, at-tracted 125 men. The number was matched by men from the North-East. Some are being interviewed now.

Job Centre manager, Mr

Watson, said today stage in the newly-formed Ay- and S. Kytching (Sports Com-cliffe Pool League, Dandy Cart plex 'B'), both teams having 'A' and Eden Arms are setting the pace, while only five points separate the remaining eight teams.

With seven matches played up to date the League appears to be running smoothly, and if the present success continues the committee are con-sidering expanding the League incorporate more teams next season.

As well as the team event, there is an individual league for the captains and also a pairs competition.

Trevor Cousins (Sports Complex 'A') and Derrick Kennedy (Iron Horse) share the lead in the captain's League, with Les Garrett (Dandy Cart 'B') in close contention tention.

In the pairs, M. Robson and this week. This is now estab-J. Wilson (Eden Arms), hold lished as an annual event.

Approaching the halfway top spot, along with A. Churn dropped only one point so far.
