It is a colourful new telegram form which has been specially designed for sending general anniversary mes-

Designed by artist Sarah Kensington, the telegram depicts an array of buttercups, honeysuckle and violets on the front cover, with the words "anniversary greetings." On the inside of the form, the wild flowers are arranged in an attractive bouquet, and the message space is framed by a green window-type border.

An addition to the current range of Post Office greetings telegrams, the new form measures 8½in. by 6in. There are other special forms for weddings, births, birthdays and coming of age, as well as an all-purpose design for general greetings.

To send a greetings tele-gram costs £1.10 plus 7p a word. There is a reduction of 20p if the telegram is handed in on a weekday (Monday to Friday) before noon on the day before delivery.

DARLINGTON CIVIC THEATRE

Darlington Civic Theatre have announced their forth-coming season. Immediately after the Pantomime, Northern Ballet Theatre return with a double bill programme, including four performances of the full-length romantic ballet "Giselle." Their second programme, a special triple bill, includes the acclaimed production of Les Sylphides by Dame Alicia Markova. During the week's visit by Northern Ballet there will be a special Gala performance on Wednes-day, 7th February, in support the 1979 Darlington Arts

May, when Scottish Ballet return to Darlington to give three performances of their new programme, which has been specially commissioned to mark the 10th anniversary of the Company. The programme on this occasion includes music by lan Anderson cludes music by lan Anderson of "Jethro Tull," Jon Ander-son of "Yes", and a ballet to music by Duke Ellington.

BEST SEASON EVE

This season there is a special series of seven main theatre productions, which start on Monday, 12th Feb., with Douglas Fielding in Francis Durbridge's famous thriller "Suddenly at Home." Revival

The fourth production of the theatre season is a nos-talgic revival of Joan Little-wood's First World War musical "Oh What a Lovely War." Agatha Christie's most famous and best stage thriller "Witness for the Prosecution" is the fifth production of the season. This major production is to be the last revival to be seen on stage for the next two years of an Agatha Christie play, for recently the Agatha Christie Estate has imposed a ban, in order to restrict the number of her plays flooding the theatre market in Britain.

Based on micro electronics, digital switching, stored pro-gram (computer) control, and Post Office.

Agreement has been reached in principle between the partners in System X

> Local exchanges, in a range of sizes from small rural units up to city centre systems.

> Tandem exchanges, inter-connecting local exchanges.

Trunk exchanges, handling long distance calls.

International gateway other countries.

Manual exchanges, providing operator assistance; and Administrative centres, for remote control of network management and maintenance.

Every exchange in this "family" can be built up from basic "building blocks." This arrangement allows exchanges to expand in harmony with the growth of the number of customers they serve, or the calls they carry. It also means that exchanges can be adapted to meet changing operat-ing conditions and that new technical developments can be readily introduced without basic system re-design.
